

64-year-old Mizuhara will be Japan's best hair grower in 2023!

We asked Shu Mizuhara (64 years old/pseudonym), the winner of “The 23th Japan New Hair Growth Contest”, about his thoughts on hair growth.

Hair can grow even after age 60!

“I was surprised because I never thought I would win.

It wasn't until I turned 60 that I started to really care about my hair. I tried over-the-counter hair growth products for about two years, but the results were not as good as expected, and when I was 62 or 63 years old, I lost all the hair on the top of my head.

So I went to Reve 21, where there was a campaign. I was skeptical at first, but after receiving a lot of health support, I started seeing hair growth about a year later. The hair on the top of my head has increased and I can touch it. Well, I thought I looked about 10 years younger. The fact that I have grown so far at the age of 64 makes me believe that it is possible for any age.”
