

Reve21 participated in the Cambodian New Year event

- 4/13, with the cooperation of the Cambodian Japan Kibou Association Kansai branch -

April 16, 2025

Reve21 participated in the "Khmer Sangkan in Japan" event celebrating the Cambodian Khmer New Year, held on Sunday, April 13, 2025 at Garden Pier in Nagoya, Aichi Prefecture. (Approximately 10,000 Cambodian students and workers participated in the event.) Reve21 also serves as the secretariat for the Cambodia-Japan Kibou Association Kansai Branch and cooperates with related events held by the Cambodian government.

The event featured a full program including food stalls displaying Cambodian food and products, and ethnic celebratory dances.

Cambodian Secretary of State Haing Chha expressed his great pleasure in participating in the "Khmer Sankrant in Japan" program. In addition, His Excellency Prime Minister Hun Manet and His Excellency the Minister of the Kingdom of Cambodia conveyed their congratulatory messages to all Cambodian nationals living, working and studying in Japan. At the Cambodia-Japan Kibou Association booth, many participants registered for the official Facebook page of the Kansai branch run by Reve21 (Japanese language business support, etc.).
